RAILWAYS ACT 2005 (as amended) - LOCAL TRANSPORT ACT 2008 The Passengers' Council (Non-Railway Functions) Order 2010 Resolution of the Passengers' Council (operating as Passenger Focus)

Explanatory Note<sup>4</sup>

The law requires that Board meetings of Passenger Focus are open to the public, but that the public must be excluded where any item of business is confidential. Confidential business is defined as being:

- Business where information provided in confidence to Passenger Focus by the Secretary of State or Office of Rail Regulation would be disclosed.
- Business where information relating to the affairs of an individual or organisation would be disclosed, and where such disclosure would 'seriously and prejudicially' affect their interests
- Business which is, by order, specified as such by the Secretary of State

In addition, the Board of Passenger Focus may, by resolution, and provided that the reason is stated, determine that because of the confidential nature of the item of business, it is in the public interest that the public be excluded during that item. The Board must also take full account of the protection of confidential information provisions in respect of any investigations it has carried out under sections 112E and 112F of the Transport Act 1985 (provisions retro-conferred under the above cited legislation). In practice, Passenger Focus will always go into private session by resolution, for whatever reason.

Date of Board Meeting	12 February 2015
Venue	Fleetbank House, London EC4

RESOLVED

that, pursuant to the statutory provisions governing procedure, members of the public shall be excluded from the meeting for the items set out below having regard to the confidential nature of the business:

Item	Description	Reason for conducting business in private session (if appropriate)
9.1 9.2	ICT contract award and previous official-sensitive minutes	Comercially confidential: the affairs of an individual or organisations will be disclosed, and such disclosure may 'seriously and prejudicially' affect their interests.
