Report Title	Reacting to extreme weather on the railways
Sponsor	Ian WRIGHT
Author(s)	Keith BAILEY

1. Summary
This is to alert board members to the publication of our research on Extreme Weather and to allow discussion of the findings and recommendations.
2. Recommendations / decision required
Research was undertaken on behalf of RDG's National Task Force to look at passengers' understanding of what constitutes extreme weather and what their expectations are in terms of the railways' preparedness and response to extreme weather events. The report makes a number of recommendations to the industry.
3. Background information

Report available on public website:	http://www.transportfocus.org.uk/research/publications/reacting-to-extreme-weather-on-the-railways

4. Equalities screen
Sometimes, an equalities impact assessment (EIA) is required for a given report, proposal or project. To help decide whether an EIA is required, a screen must be undertaken based on the information provided above. The screen seeks answers to four questions which are used to determine impact on the protected characteristics – major, minor or none (default). Please choose the correct impact value and, if major, link it to an explanation below.

Gender	Age	Sexual orient'n	Disability	Marital status	Political belief	Religious belief	Racial group
1. What is the likely impact on equality of opportunity for those affected by this policy, for each of the Section 75 equality categories?
None	None	None	None	None	None	None	None

¹ If a decision is required, or you are asking for the paper to be formally noted, please set this out in section 2

² If for information only, please make clear in section 1 why this information is being provided

³ ie OFFICIAL/SENSITIVE: plus COMMERCIAL / POLICY / MANAGEMENT-STAFF / PERSONAL PROTECT

2. Are there opportunities to better promote equality of opportunity for people within the Section 75 equalities categories?

Conclusion (the board's consideration of this paper may result in a change of conclusion)

Based on the information above, and having regard to the guidance below, the sponsor and author of this paper agree that (√)
(a) A full equalities impact assessment is not required	√
(b) A full equalities impact assessment is not required at this time but the impact values above suggest the matter should be kept under view during the lifetime of the project
(c) A full equalities impact assessment is required and should be completed during the lifetime of the project
(d) A full equalities impact assessment is required and should be completed immediately
Please provide a brief explanation of why you have arrived at this conclusion
The proposal has little no relevance to equality of opportunity or good relations and / or is purely technical in nature and will have no bearing in terms of its likely impact on equality of opportunity or good relations for people within the equality and good relations categories.
