

Christmas travel 2021

Week 3

23 December 2021

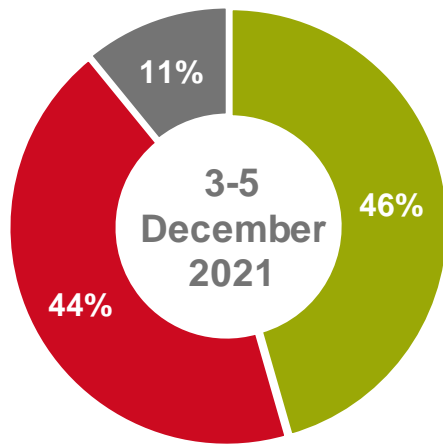

Summary

- We asked questions regarding Christmas travel plans questions over consecutive weekends between 3 and 19 December.
- Less than half are currently planning to make journeys to visit family or friends over the Christmas/New Year period.
- The majority of those who are planning to travel to visit family and friends over the Christmas/New Year period intend to travel by road. Only around one in ten say that they are planning to use public transport to travel.

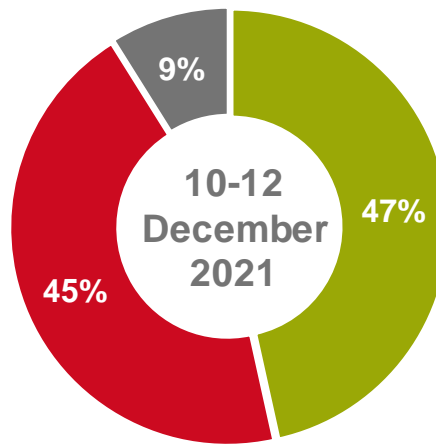

Less than half are planning to make journeys to visit friends and family over Christmas

Are you currently planning to travel to visit friends or family over Christmas/New Year period?

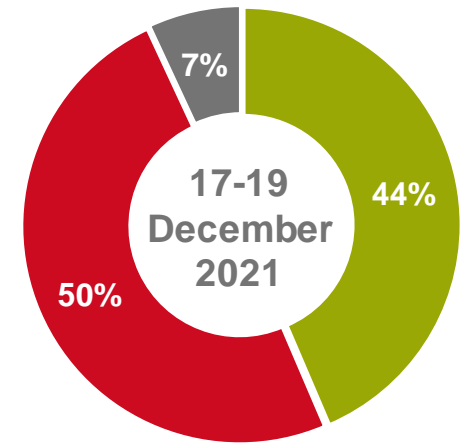

Base: All respondents (1,991)

■ Yes ■ No ■ Don't know

■ Yes ■ No ■ Don't know

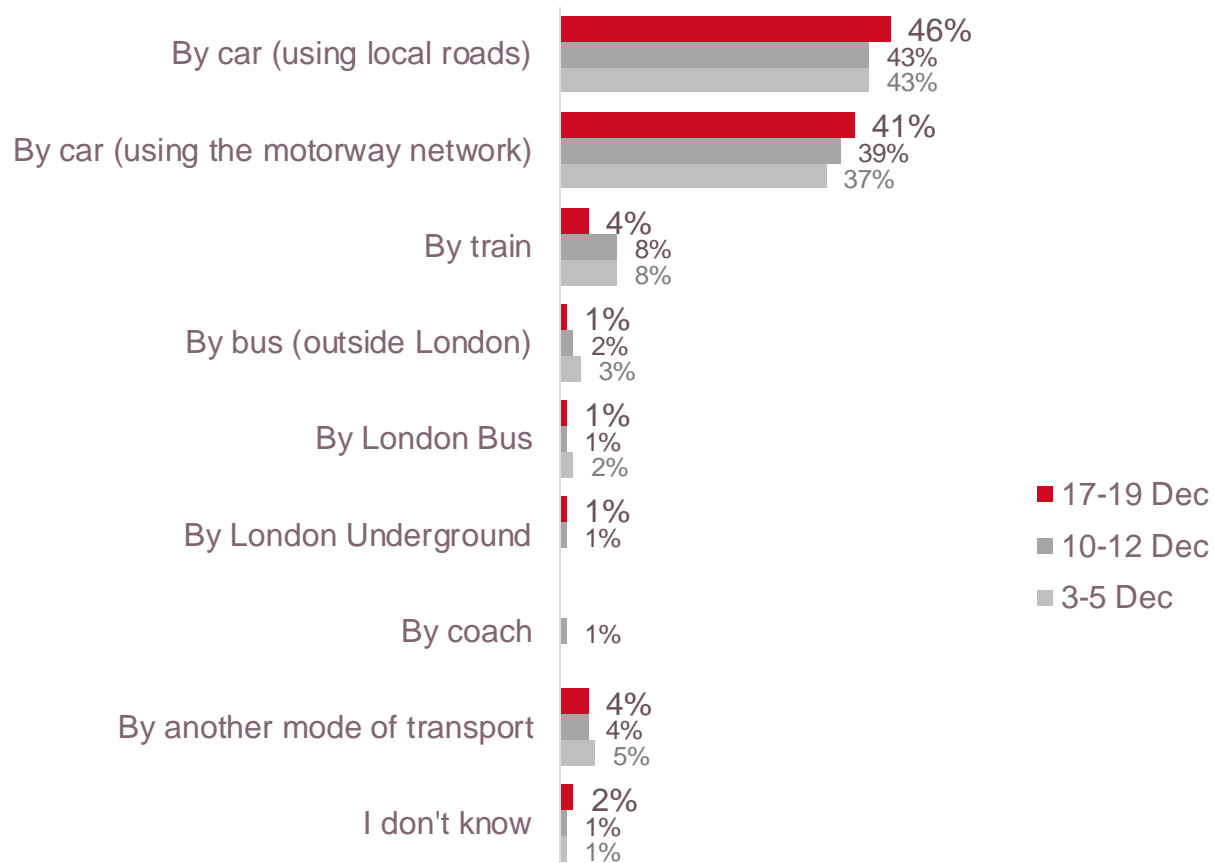

■ Yes ■ No ■ Don't know

More than two in five of those who are making journeys over the Christmas/New Year period will be travelling by car, using local roads only. Around two in five will be using the motorway network.

Which will be the main mode of transport that you will use to make a journey to visit family and friends over the Christmas/New Year period?

Base: All who are making a journey over the Christmas / New Year period (W72 - 904)

Survey method and sample breakdown – week 70

- c.2000 online interviews per week. Using Yonder Consulting weekly omnibus.
- Nationally representative of population of Great Britain – not all respondents are passengers on public transport.
- Fieldwork repeated each weekend. Week 70 fieldwork: 17–19 December

Sample size by age groups and gender

	TOTAL	18-24	25-34	35-44	45-54	55-64	65+	Male	Female
Wave 72	2,038	183	356	321	366	336	476	987	1,044

Sample size by region

	Scotland	North East	North West	Yorks & Humber	West Midlands	East Midlands	Wales	Eastern	London	South East	South West
Wave 72	179	97	224	172	167	145	104	204	267	299	180